

Session Title

Measuring Employee Performance (OPM)

Session Date

Wednesday, April 15, 2015 • 1:00 - 1:50 pm EST

Session Objective

At the end of this session, attendees will be able to:

- Identify and develop clear and transparent alignment of critical elements to organizational goals; and
- Identify and develop results-focused critical elements and standards that include specific measures of performance targeted at the Fully Successful level.
- Identify and develop results-focused critical elements and standards that include specific measures of performance targeted at the Fully Successful level.

Presenter

Aisha Kendall – Aisha.Kendall@opm.gov

Presenter Biography

Aisha Kendall has been with OPM since September 2011 as the Team Lead for Executive Resources and Performance Management Implementation. Aisha provides Government-wide program direction and technical guidance in the design, implementation, evaluation, and certification of SES, senior professional, and GS performance management systems and programs. Prior to OPM, Aisha worked for DoD OIG as an Employee Relations Specialist and SES Performance Management Program Manager. Aisha began her Federal career as an HR Specialist with the Department of Air Force. Aisha holds a B.S. in Psychology from Howard University and a J.D. from The George Washington University Law School.